CODE OF CONDUCT AND DRESS CODE

Students are to conduct themselves in accord with exemplary standards of ethics and behavior, including zero tolerance for any actions that violate any civil or criminal codes. Students found to be in violation of any laws, regulations or policies established for the FCCLA event they are attending will be subject to disciplinary action and prosecution. Their parents or guardians and school officials will be notified and must remove the student from the event.

Dress is to reflect the FCCLA image and follow guidelines for specific events. When not specified, "business casual" is appropriate for workshops and general sessions (no slogans, sayings, logos, or images on T-shirts or other clothing; no low-riding pants or skirts that reveal abdomens, navels, mid-backs; no bare mid-sections; no torn or ragged clothing; no hats; no short shorts; no thin strap tops; no blue jeans; no sweats). All other guidelines still apply.

Understanding completely the policies, practices, and procedures that will serve to govern the conduct and attire of persons attending an FCCLA event, I do hereby agree to follow said policies, procedures, and practices and abide by any consequences of any violations.
